DRESS REHEARSAL DATES

Dress rehearsals are held at the studio during your regular class times so that we may all know exactly how the costume should be worn. We need our dance moms, grandmas or older sisters! We know you have busy schedules with family and work so use these guidelines as to whether you need to attend dress rehearsal:

- The younger students should each have an adult present to assist them since someone will need to know how to dress them on recital day.
- The intermediate age students can usually dress themselves with some assistance with pinning and head pieces. For these students, we need only two or three volunteer class moms.
- The mid to older teens are fine on their own. One or two volunteers never hurt, but these girls are fully capable of assisting each other.

Please be patient during Dress Rehearsal days. The windows will be covered and the doors may be locked while we are changing (the small studio essentially doubles as a big dressing room) so be ready to wait outside a couple minutes if you arrive too early or too late. On the days when both studios are running (and this goes especially for Saturdays), be aware that access to males (dads, brothers...) has to be limited and restricted due to costume changes.

These days may be inconvenient, but they are unavoidable, so please bear with us during those two weeks.

Your consideration and cooperation will help these rehearsals go smoothly and productively.

Please check the list below carefully so you will know when your rehearsal time is.
